Counsels,

I received a call from Ali from Judge Failla's chambers. She has asked to clarify that the non-disparagement does not prevent any of the parties from mentioning the existence of the litigation and that if asked, the parties are able to direct inquiries regarding the litigation to the public docket.

Please advise on your understanding of the settlement agreement's non-disparagement provisions.

Thanks.

That is my understanding, it cannot be a "gag" order or confidentiality agreement.

Yes, confirmed. Our clients are aware of that. There is no confidentiality. Non Disparagement is completely different.
